A COLLECTION OF SACRED HYMNS AND TUNES

FOR

✦ SUNDAY-SCHOOLS ✦

AND OTHER RELIGIOUS GATHERINGS.

PREFACE.

WE read in the Book of Job that when the corner-stone of the earth was laid, "the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." We know not the song the "stars" sang, nor the melody to which it was attuned, but its theme is beautifully expressed by Addison in these lines :

"What though no real voice nor sound,
Amid those radiant orbs be found,
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
Forever singing as they shine,
'The Hand that made us is divine.'"

Out of the following sacred hymns and tunes we may make "Morning Stars," which shall praise God, not only as our Creator, but through Christ as our Redeemer, and through the Holy Ghost as our Sanctifier,—to whom be glory now and forever. Amen.

JOHN B. DYKES.

1. Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly, Lord God Al-might-y! Gratefully a - dor-ing, our song shall rise to Thee:
2. Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, all the saints adore Thee, Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea;
3. Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly! tho' the darkness hide Thee, Tho' the eyes of sinful man Thy glory may not see,
4. Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth and sky and sea;

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, mer-ci - ful and mighty-y, God in Three Persons, blessed Trin-i - ty!
Cher-n - bim and Sera - phim falling down before Thee, Who wert and art and ev-ermore shalt be.
On - ly Thou art ho - ly; there is none be-side Thee Per - fect in power, in love and pu - ri - ty.
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, mer-ci - ful and mighty, God in Three Per-sons, blessed Trin-i - ty!

1. Holy Spirit, faithful Guide,
Ever near the Christian's side,
Gently lead us by the hand,
Pilgrims in a desert land,
Weary souls, fore'er rejoice,
While they hear that sweetest voice,
Whispering softly, wanderer, come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

2. Ever present, truest friend,
Ever near, thine aid to lend,
Leave us not to doubt and fear,
Groping on in darkness drear,
When the storms are raging sore,
Hearts grow faint and hopes give o'er,
Whisper softly, wanderer, come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

3. When our days of toil shall cease,
Waiting still for sweet release,
Nothing left but heaven and prayer,
Wond'ring if our names are there;
Wading deep the dismal flood,
Pleading naught but Jesus' blood;
Whisper softly, wanderer come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

That Fountain.

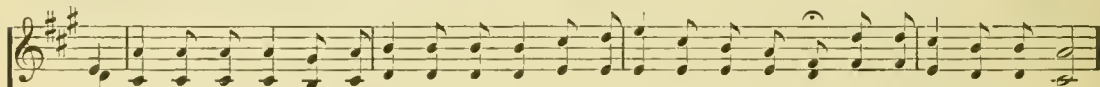

Zech. 13: 1. Rev. 1: 5.

Mrs. E. E. ELSWORTH.

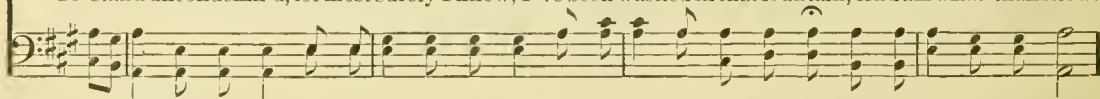

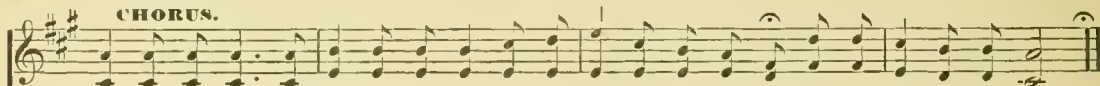

First Verse, Chorus arr., and Music by W. E. PENN.

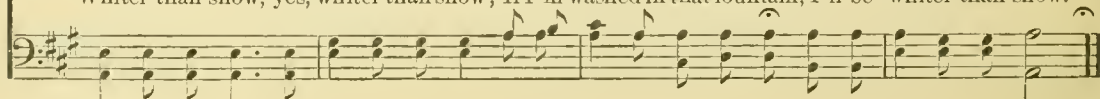

1. I'm told that a fountain was opened for sin In King David's house, where all may he made clean;
2. Thy blood, O my Saviour, was poured out for me, So precious, so cost-ly, yet offered so free;
3. Tho' red as the crimson, like wool I shall be, If plunged 'neath the waves of this fathom-less sea;
4. My faith would receive the redemption I crave, The power to triumph o'er death and the grave;

This fount is the blood that from Jesus did flow; If I'm washed in that fountain, I'll be whiter than snow.
 Tho' sins be as scarlet, this truth I would know, If I'm washed in that fountain, I'll be whiter than snow.
 I come, O my Saviour, where pure waters flow; If I'm washed in that fountain, I'll be whiter than snow.
 To stand uncondemn'd, for most surely I know, I've been washed in that fountain, And am whiter than snow.

CHORUS.

Whiter than snow, yes, whiter than snow; If I'm washed in that fountain, I'll be whiter than snow.

[Omit in Repeat, & D. C.]

1 Work, for the day is passing;
Pray, for the night's at hand;
Watch, for the Master calleth;
Strive, it is God's command.
Now is the time for labor,
Then is the judgment hour;
Work for the soul's salvation,
Pray for the Spirit's power.

2 Work for the souls around you,
Weep, weep for sins your own;
Fight for the cross upon you,
Wait for the victor's crown.
Watch while you work for others,
Pray while you wait for power;
Watching and working, praying,
Fill up each golden hour.

3 "Work, for the night is coming!"—
Near you may be death's door;
Pray, for the day is passing,
Day of the Saviour's power.
Sleep when the toil is ended,
Wake from your Christ-blest tomb;
Rest, faithful Christian worker,
When Jesus calls you home.

What Shall Our Record Be?

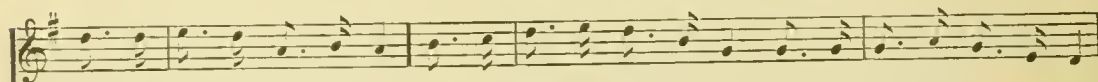

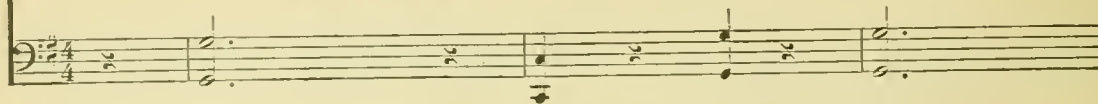

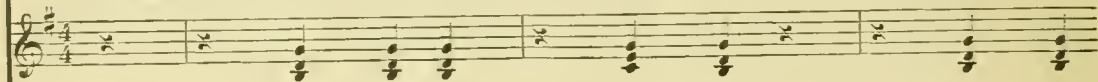

SOLO AND CHORUS.

FRANK M. DAVIS.

F. M. D.

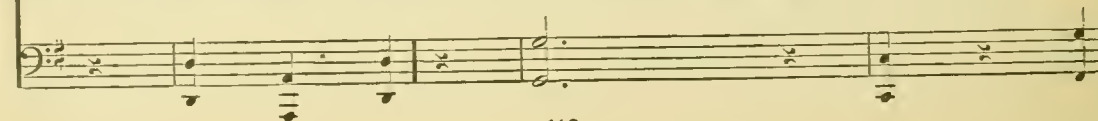

1. There's a hand that's writing now In the book of life, they say; Ev-'ry ac-tion, word or deed
2. Still that hand goes writ-ing on, Making pag-es dark or fair; Let us ponder well, dear friends,
3. Time is ebb-ing fast a-way, Life for us will soon be done; Can we, trust-ing-ly, go hence,

Is re-cord-ed there each day.

What for us is writ-ten there. What shall then our rec-ord be? Let us stop and think, I pray!

That a crown of life is won?

What Shall Our Record Be? Concluded.

CHORUS.

What shall then our rec - ord be In the coming judgment day? In the coming judgment day,

In the coming judgment day? What shall then our rec - ord be, In the coming judgment day.

Tell Us of the Night.

Arr. from LOWELL MASON.

[Omit in repeat & D.S.]

1 Watchman, tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are.
Trav'ler, o'er yon mountain's height,
See that glory-beaming star.
Watchman, does its beauteous ray
Aught of hope or joy foretell?
Trav'ler, yes, it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel.

2 Watchman, tell us of the night,
Higher yet that star ascends.
Trav'ler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams, alone,
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Trav'ler, ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Trav'ler, darkness takes its flight;
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wand'ring cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Trav'ler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God is come.

Rise from transitory things
Tow'rd heaven, thy native place:
Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and baste away
To seats prepared above. | 2 Rivers to the ocean run,

Fire, ascending, seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source;
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face:
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace. | 3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn;
Press onward to the prize:
Soon our Saviour will return,
Triumphant in the skies;
There we'll join the heavenly train,
Welcomed to partake the bliss;
Fly from sorrow, care, and pain,

 { O balm of care and sadness, Most beau-ti - ful and bright; } On thee, the high and low - ly

Through ag - es joined in tune, Sing "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly," To the great God Tri - une.

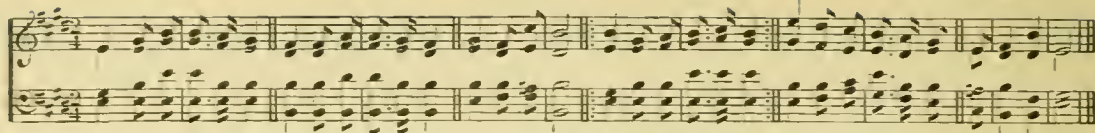

2 On thee, at the creation,
 The light first had its birth;
 On thee, for our Salvation,
 Christ rose from depths of earth;
 On thee, our Lord, victorious,
 The Spirit sent from heaven,
 And thus on thee, most glorious,
 A triple light was given

3 To day, on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls;
 To holy convocations
 The silver trumpet calls,
 Where gospel light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.

4 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest:
 To Holy Ghost be praises,
 To Father, and to Son:
 The Church her voice upraises
 To thee, blest Three in One.

1 My faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine.
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away.
O, let me from this day
Be wholly thine!

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart;
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm and changeless be,
A living fire!

And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my Guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

1 My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain's side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;

I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

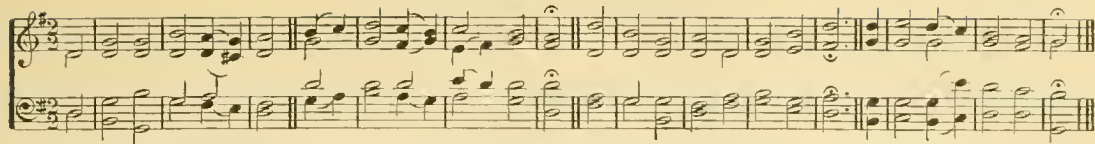

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake;

Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

To draw thee from the skies.

2 O, watch, and fight, and pray!
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.

3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down;
The work of faith will not be done
Till thou obtain the crown.

143 Christian Joys.

1 Come, ye that love the Lord,
And let your joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
While ye surround his throne.

2 Let those refuse to sing,
Who never knew our God;
But servants of the Heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

144 Grace.

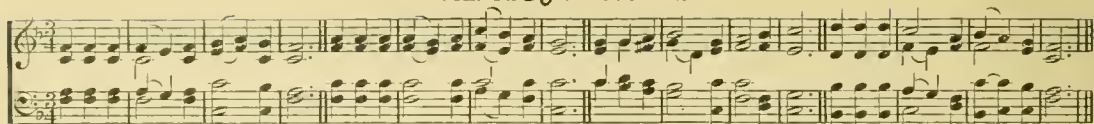

1 Grace! 'tis a charming sound,
Harmonious to the ear;
Heaven with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.

2 Grace led my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet,
While pressing on to God.

3 Grace all the work shall crown
Through everlasting days,
And every ransom'd power shall join
In wonder, love, and praise.

PETER RITTER.

145 Sun of My Soul.

1 Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear,
It is not night, if thou art near;
O may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

2 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I can not live;
Abide with me when night is high,
For without thee I dare not die.

3 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere thro' the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above.

146 The Divine Teacher.

1 How sweetly flow'd the Gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
While listening thousands gather'd round,
And joy and reverence fill'd the place!

2 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest."
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey and be forever blest.

3 Decay, then, tenements of dust!
Pillars of earthly pride, decay!
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepar'd the way.

147 Grateful Praise.

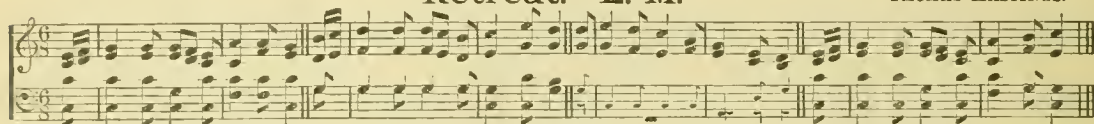

1 Now, in a song of grateful praise,
To my dear Lord my voice I'll raise;
With all his saints I'll join to tell
That Jesus hath done all things well.

2 Wisdom, and power, and love divine.
In all his works unrival'd shine,
And force the wondering world to tell
That he alone did all things well.

3 And when I stand before his throne,
And all his ways are fully known,
This note in sweetest strains shall swell,

148 The Mercy-Seat.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm and sure retreat:
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads;
A place that all besides more sweet,
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There, there on eagle's wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest us no more;
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
While glory crowns the mercy-seat.

149 Living-Redeemer.

1 I know that my Redeemer lives—
What joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead;

He lives, my everlasting Head!

2 He lives, to bless me with his love;
He lives, to plead for me above;
He lives, my hungry soul to feed;
He lives, to help in time of need.

3 He lives—all glory to his name!
He lives, my Saviour, still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives,—
I know that my Redeemer lives.

150 Asleep in Jesus.

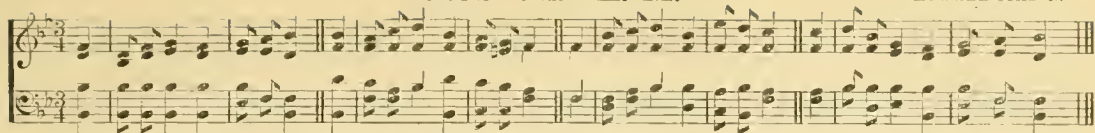

1 Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep!
From which none ever wake to weep;
A calm and undisturb'd repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe shall dim that hour,
Which manifests the Saviour's power.

3 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

151 Protection.

1 Thus far the Lord hath led me on—
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past, [come.
And gives me strength for days to

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head,
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

152 By Grace, through Faith.

1 We have no outward righteousness,
No merits or good works, to plead;
We only can be sav'd by grace;
Thy grace, O Lord, is free indeed.

2 Save us by grace, thro' faith alone,
A faith thou must thyself impart;
A faith that would by works be shown.

A faith that purifies the heart:
3 This is the faith we humbly seek
The faith in thy all-cleansing blood;
That faith which doth for sinners
O let it speak us up to God! [speak,

153 Entirely Thine.

1 Lord, I am thine, entirely thine,
Purchas'd and sav'd by blood divine;
With full consent thine I would be,
And own thy sovereign right in me.

2 Thine would I live—thine would I
Be thine through all eternity; [die;
The vow is past beyond repeal,
And now I set the solemn seal.

3 Here, at that cross where flows the blood
That bought my guilty soul for God—
Thee, my new Master, now I call,
And consecrate to thee my all.

Glorying Only in the Cross.

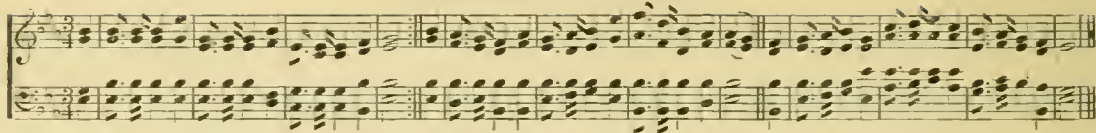

1 When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain t'blugs that charm me
I sacrifice them to his blood. [most,

3 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

155 Joy of Forgiveness.

1 How happy every child of grace
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my place in heaven;
A country far from mortal sight,
Yet, O, by faith I see;
The land of rest, the saints' delight,—
The heaven prepared for me!

2 O, what a blessed hope is ours
While here on earth we stay!
We more than taste the heavenly
And antedate that day; [powers,
We feel the resurrection near—
Our life in Christ couceal'd—
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels fill'd.

158 Joy to the World.

1 Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.

2 No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.

159 The Race for Glory.

1 Awake, my soul! stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.

2 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis he whose hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.

156 The Heavenly Canaan.

1 There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
There everlasting spring abides,
And never-with'ring flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dress'd in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er, [flood,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold
Should fright us from the shore.

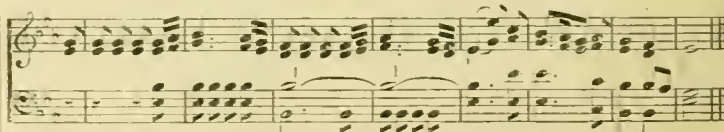

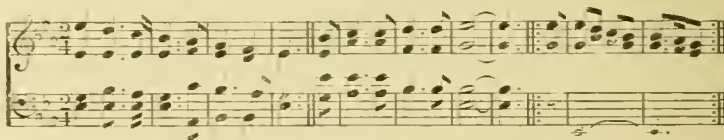

157 The Saviour's Triumph.

1 Jesus, immortal King, arise!
Assert thy rightful sway,
Till earth, subdued, its tribute brings,
And distant lands obey.
Send forth thy word, and let it fly
The spacious earth around,
Till every soul beneath the sun
Shall hear the joyful sound.

2 O, may the great Redeemer's name
Through every clime be known,
And heathen gods, forsaken, fall,
And Jesus reign alone!
From sea to sea, from shore to shore,
Be thou, O Christ! ador'd,
And earth, with all her millions, shout
Hosannas to the Lord.

160 Dear Redeemer.

1 Thou dear Redeemer, dying Lamb,
I love to hear of thee;
No music 's like thy charming name,
Nor half so sweet can be.

2 O let me ever hear thy voice
In mercy to me speak;
In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice,
And thy salvation seek.

3 My Jesus shall be still my theme,
While in this world I stay;
I'll sing my lovely Jesus' name
When all things else decay.

4 When I appear in yonder cloud,
With all thy favor'd throng,
Then will I sing more sweet, more loud,
And Christ shall be my song.

161 The Dearest Name.

1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.

3 Dear Name, the Rock on which I build,
My shield and hiding-place;
My never-failing treasure, fill'd
With boundless stores of grace.

4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Saviour, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest and King,
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

5 I would thy boundless love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
So shall the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

162 Crown Him Lord of All.

1 All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 O, that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

163

Redeemer's Praise.

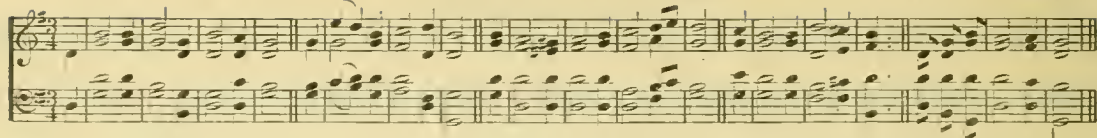

1 O, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise;
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace!

2 My gracious Master, and my God,
Assist me to proclaim—
To spread thro' all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy Name.

3 Jesus!—the name that charms our
That bids our sorrows cease; [fears,
'Tis music in the sinner's ears.
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

164 Heavenly Dove.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Father, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate—
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

3 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

165 Closer Walk.

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame;
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

3 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

166 Morning Prayer.

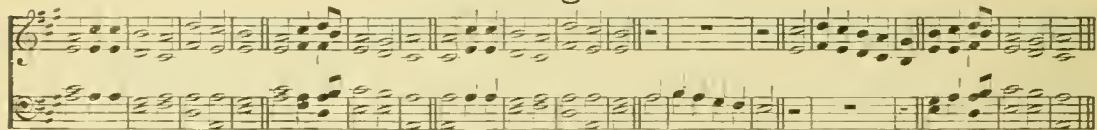

1 Lord, in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high:
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye:

2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone
To plead for all his saints;
Presenting, at the Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

3 O, may thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face!

167 Not Ashamed.

1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause;
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.

2 Firm as his throne his promises stand,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands.
Till the decisive hour.

3 Before he will own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the New Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

168 Abundant Mercies.

1 When all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view, I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise!

2 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The pleasing theme renew.

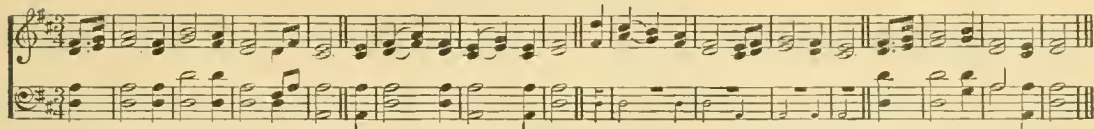

3 Through all eternity to thee
A grateful song I'll raise;
But, O! eternity's too short
To utter all thy praise.

169 Joyful Sound.

1 Salvation! O the joyful sound!
What pleasure to our ears;
A sov'reign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.

2 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious world around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

3 Salvation! O, thou bleeding Lamb!
To thee the praise belongs;
Salvation shall inspire our hearts,
And dwell upon our tongues.

170 Early Plety.

1 By cool Siloam's shady rill,
How sweet the lily grows!
How sweet the breath, beneath the bill,
Of Sharon's dewy rose!

2 Lo! such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod—
Whose secret heart, with influence
Is upward drawn to God. [sweet,

3 O Thou, who givest life and breath!
We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.

171 Unfailing Guide.

1 How shall the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

2 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day,
And, thro' the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.

3 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page!
That holy Book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

172 Wanderer Recalled.

1 Return, O wanderer, return,
And seek thy Father's face!
Those new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by his grace.

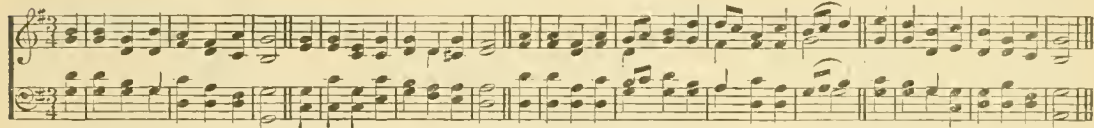

2 Return, O wanderer, return!
He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy soften'd spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.

3 Return, O wanderer, return!
Thy Saviour bids thee live;
Come to his cross, and, grateful, learn,
How freely he'll forgive.

The Divine Adorning.

1 I want that adorning divine,
Thou only, my God, can'st bestow;
I want in those beautiful garments to shine
Which mark out thy household below.

2 I want every moment to feel
Thy Spirit indwelling my heart,
Thy pow'r ever present to cleanse and to heal,
And newness of life to impart.

3 I want to be mark'd for thine own,
Thy seal on my forehead to wear;
And have that new name on the mystic white stone,
Which none but thyself can declare.

4 I want in thee e'er to abide,
And bring forth some fruit to thy praise;
The branch which thou prunest, tho' feeble and dried,
May languish, but never decays.

5 I want, by my aspect serene,
My actions and words to declare,
My treasure is placed in a country unseen,
My heart's best affections are there.

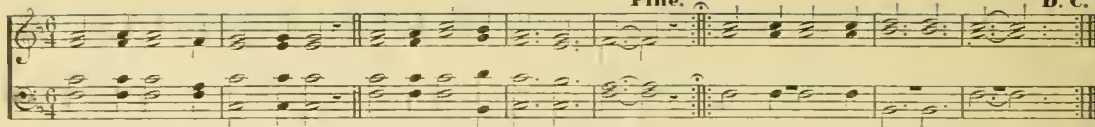

6 I want, and this sums up my prayer,
To glorify thee till I die;
Then calmly to yield up my soul to thy care,
And breathe out, in faith, my last sigh.

Our Refuge.

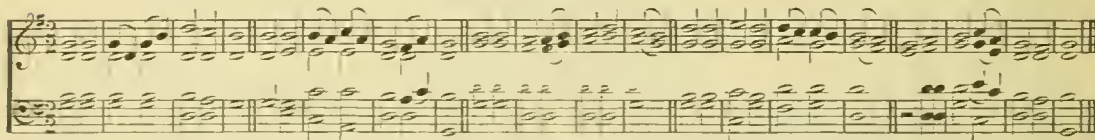

1 Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
O, receive my soul at last.

2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, O, leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on thee is stay'd;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the fountain art;
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart:
Rise to all eternity.

175 The Precious Bible.

1 Holy Bible! book divine!
Precious treasure! thou art mine!
Mine, to tell me whence I came;
Mine, to teach me what I am;

2 Mine, to chide me when I rove;
Mine, to show a Saviour's love;
Mine art thou to guide my feet;
Mine, to judge, condemn, acquit;

3 Mine, to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless;
Mine, to show my living faith,
Man can triumph over death;

4 Mine, to tell of joys to come,
And the rebel sinner's doom;
O, thou precious book divine!

176 For a General Blessing.

1 Lord, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
O, do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend;
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 Send some message from thy word,
That may joy and peace afford;
Let thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

4 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee, a gracious God and kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

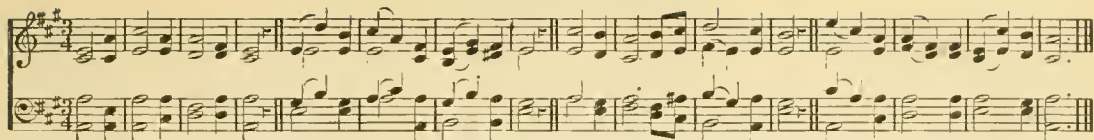

177 Pilgrim's Song.

1 Children of the heavenly King,
As we journey let us sing—
Sing our Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

2 We are trav'ling home to God,
In the way our fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of our land;
Jesus Christ, our Father's Son,
Bids us undismay'd go on.

4 Lord, obediently we'll go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

178 Danger of Delay.

1 Hasten, sinner, to be wise!
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom if you still despise,
Harder is it to be won.

2 Hasten mercy to implore!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy season should be o'er
Ere this evening's stage he run.

3 Hasten, sinner, to return!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy lamp should fail to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Hasten, sinner, to be blest!
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest perdition thee arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

179 Encouragements to Pray.

1 Come, my soul, thy snit prepare;
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He himself invites thee near,
Bids thee ask him, waits to hear.

2 Lord, I come to thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There thy blood-bought right malu-
And without a rival reign. [tain,

3 Show me what I have to do;
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die thy people's death.

180 Communion with God.

1 Softly now the light of day
Fades upon our sight away;
Free from care, from labor free,
Lord, we would commune with thee.

2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
Naught escapes, without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,
Open fault and secret sin.

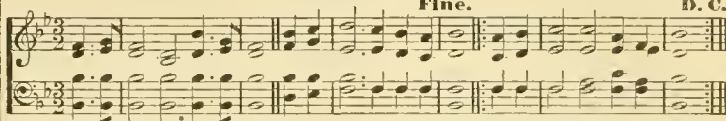

3 Soon from us the light of day
Shall forever pass away,
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take us, Lord, to dwell with thee.

181 Rock of Ages.

1 Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood
From thy wounded side which flow'd,
Be of sin the double cure—
Save from wrath and make me pure.

2 Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know;
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save and thou alone.
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to the cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold thee on thy throne,—
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

182

Nearer, my God, to Thee.

1 Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

2 Though like a wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness comes over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

3 There let my way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sedest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

4 Or, if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

183 Fount of Blessing.

1 Come, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise,
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount—I'm fix'd upon it,
Mount of thy redeeming love.

2 Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer;
Hither by thy help I'm come!
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interpos'd his precious blood.

3 O, to grace how great a debtor
Dailly I'm constrain'd to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it—
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here 's my heart; O, take and seal it,
Seal it for thy courts above.

184 What a Friend.

1 What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear—
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discourag'd;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness;
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

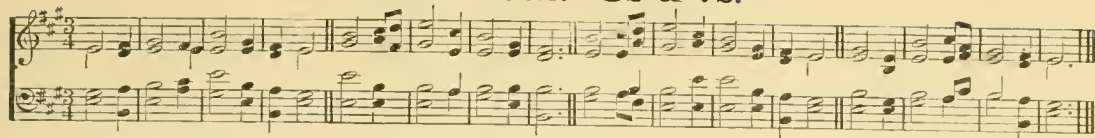

3 Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumber'd with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In his arms he'll take and shield thee;
Thou wilt find a solace there.

185 Following Jesus.

1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
All to leave and follow thee;
Naked, poor, despis'd, forsaken,
Thou, from hence, my all shalt be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought, or hop'd, or known,
Yet how rich is my condition!
God and heaven are still my own.

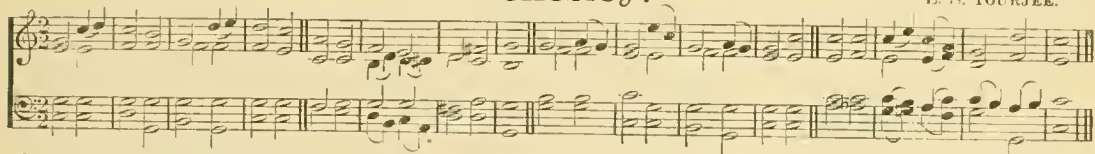

2 Know, my soul, thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin and fear and care,
Joy to find in every station,
Something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
What a Father's smile is thine;
What a Saviour died to win thee;
Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

186 God is Love.

- 1 God is love, his mercy brightens
All the paths in which we move;
Bliss he grants, and woe he lightens;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Chance and change are hussy ever,
Worlds decay and ages move,
But his mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 He our earthly cares entwined
With his comforts from above;
Everywhere his glory shineth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

187 Toil on, Teachers.

- 1 Toil on, teachers, toil on boldly,
Labor on, and watch and pray;
Men may scoff and treat you coldly,
Heed them not, go on your way.
Jesus is a loving master;
Cease not then this work to do;
Cling to him still closer, faster,
He will own and honor you.
- 2 Toil on, teachers! earnest, steady,
Sowing well the seeds of truth;
Always willing, cheerful, ready,
Watching, praying, for your youth.
Patient, firm, and persevering,
Leaning on the promise sure;
Prayer will surely gain a hearing,
Faithful to the end endure.

188 Glory in the Cross.

- 1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.
- 2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive and fears annoy,
Never shall the cross forsake me;
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.
- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds new luster to the day.
- 4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

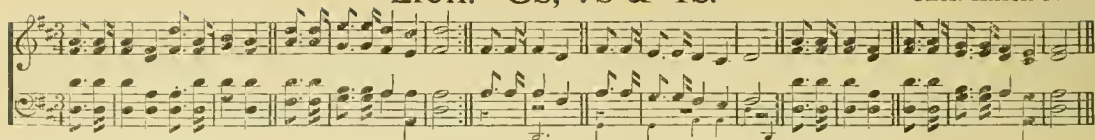

190

A Blessing Asked.

- 1 Heavenly Father, grant thy blessing
While once more thy praise we sing;
Sinful hearts and lives confessing,
Nothing worthy can we bring;
Yet thy book of love hath taught us,
Thou wilt kindly how thine ear;
For the sake of Him who thought us,
We may call, and thou wilt hear.
- 2 What a boon to us is given,
Thus to lift our voice on high,
Well assur'd the ear of heaven
Hears our wants, and will supply!
Weak and sinful—O, how often
Must we look to God alone,
For his grace our hearts to soften
And sustain us as his own!

O, refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness!

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found!

3 So, whene'er the signal 's given,
Us from earth to call away,
Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
Glad the summons to obey,
May we ever
Reign with Christ in endless day!

193 Evening Blessing.

1 Saviour, breathe an evening blessing,
Ere repose our spirits seal;
Sin and want we come confessing;
Thou canst save and thou canst heal.

2 Tho' the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from thee;
Thou art he who, never weary,
Watchest where thy people be.

3 Should swift death this night o'er-take us,
And command us to the tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright eternal bloom!

194 Joy at the Cross.

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Here I'll sit, forever viewing
Mercy streaming in his blood;
Precious drops, my soul bedewing,
Plead and claim my peace with God.

3 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his gracious eye.

195 The World's Call.

1 From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strewn;
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learn'd Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Morning Light.

1 The morning light is breaking,
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love;
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above:
While sinners now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay.
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come."

Home, Sweet Home.

BISHOP.

CHORUS. Slow. A tem. Rit.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home, Pre - pare me, dear Sav - iour, for glo - ry, my home.

Sweet Home.

1 'Mid scenes of confusion and creature complaints,
How sweet to my soul is communion with saints;
To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
And feel in the presence of Jesus at home!

2 Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace,
And thrice gracious Jesus, whose love can not cease,
Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory at home.

3 Whate'er thou deniest, O give me thy grace!
Thy Spirit's sure witness, and smiles of thy face;
Indulge me with patience to wait at thy throne,
And find, even now, a sweet foretaste of home.

I would not Live Alway.

1 I would not live alway; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

2 Who, who would live alway, away from his God—
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where rivers of pleasure flow bright o'er the plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

3 There saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
While anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

How Firm a Foundation.

1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he hath said,
||: You, who unto Jesus for refuge have fled? :||

2 Fear not; I am with thee; O, he not dismay'd;
I, I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
||: Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand. :||

3 When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply,
The flame shall not hurt thee; I only design
||: Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine. :||

4 The soul that on Jesus hath lean'd for repose,
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, tho' all hell should endeavor to shake,
||: I'll never, no never, no never forsake. :||

Portuguese Hymn.

200 At the River.

1 Shall we gather at the river,
Where bright angel feet have trod?
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God?

CHORUS.

Yes, we'll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints at the river,
That flows by the throne of God.

2 Ere we reach the shining river,
Lay we every burden down;
Grace our spirit will deliver,
And provide a robe and crown.
Yes, we'll gather, etc.

3 Soon we'll reach the silver river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace.
Yes, we'll gather, etc.

201 All Paid.

1 I Hear the Saviour say,
Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray,
Find in me thy all in all.

CHO.—Jesus paid it all,
All to him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain;
He wash'd it white as snow.

2 For nothing good have I
Whereby thy grace to claim—
I'll wash my garment white
In the blood of Calvary's Lamb.

3 When from my dying bed
My ransom'd soul shall rise.
Then "Jesus paid it all"
Shall rend the vaulted skies.

4 And when before the throne
I stand in him complete,
I'll lay my trophies down,
All down at Jesus' feet.

202 Matchless Worth.

1 O could I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth
Which in my Saviour shine,
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel as he sings,
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine;
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 Well, the delightful day will come
When my dear Lord will bring me
home,
And I shall see his face;
Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

Morning Stars.

203 Over There.

1 O, think of the home over there,
By the side of the river of light,
Where the saints all immortal and fair,
Are robed in their garments of white.

REF.—*Over there, over there,
Oh, think of the home over there.*

2 O, think of the friends over there,
Who before us the journey have trod of the songs that they breathe on the air,
In their home in the palace of God.

3 My Saviour is now over there,
There my kindred and friends are at rest;
Then away from my sorrow and care,
Let me fly to the land of the blest.

4 I'll soon be at home over there,
For the end of my journey I see,
Many dear to my heart, over there,
Are watching and waiting for me.

204 What for Me?

1 I gave my life for thee,
My precious blood I shed,
That thou might'st ransom'd be,
And quickened from the dead;
I gave, I gave my life for thee:
What hast thou given for me?

208 Thine the Glory.

1 We praise thee, O God, for the Son of thy love,
For Jesus who died and is now gone above.

CHO.—Hallelujah! thine the glory, etc.

2 We praise thee, O God, for the spirit of light,
Who has shown us our Savior and scattered our night.

3 All glory and praise to the Lamb that was slain,
Who has borne all our sins, and has cleansed every stain.

4 Revive us again; fill each heart with thy love;
May each soul be rekindled with fire from above!

2 My father's house of light,—
My glory-circled throne.
I left for earthly night,
For wau'd'rings sad and lone;
I left, I left it all for thee:
Hast thou left aught for me?

3 And I have brought to thee,
Down from my home above,
Salvation full and free,
My pardon and my love;
I bring, I bring rich gifts to thee:
What hast thou brought to me?

205 Trusting.

1 I am coming to the cross;
I am poor, and weak, and blind;
I am counting all but dross,
I shall full salvation find.

CHO.—*I am trusting, Lord, in thee,
Dear Lamb of Calvary;
Humbly at thy cross I bow,
Save me, Jesus. save me now.*

2 Here I give my all to thee,
Friends, and time, and earthly store;
Soul and body, thine to be,—
Wholly thine for evermore.

3 Jesus comes! He fills my soul!
Perfect'd in him I am;
I am every whit made whole;
Glory, glory to the Lamb.

206 Blessed Union.

1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one—
Our comforts and our cares.
3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

207 Sweet Hour of Prayer.

1 Sweet hour of prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me at my Father's throne
Make all my wants and wishes known;
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer

2 Sweet hour of prayer!
Thy wings shall my petition bear,
To Him whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless;
And since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word and trust his grace,
I'll cast on Him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

209 Whosoever Believeth.

1 Whosoever, on Jesus, his Son, will believe,
Unto each God has promised salvation to give.

CHO.—Hallelujah! 'tis done; I believe, etc.

2 He will save from the guilt and the power of sin;
From the evil without and the evil within.

3 To believers shall life everlasting be given,
With the mansions, prepared by the Saviour, in heaven.

4 When the ransomed to Zion our Jesus shall bring,
Through the ages eternal this song shall they sing.

Morning Stars.

210 He Leadeth Me.

1. He leadeth me! O, blessed thought!
O, words with heavenly comfort
Whate'er I do, where'er I be, [fraught!
Still 't is God's hand that leadeth me.

REF.—*He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
By his own hand he leadeth me!
His faithful foll'wer I would be,
For by his hand he leadeth me.*

2 Sometimes 'mild scenes of deepest gloom, [bloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,—
Still 't is his hand that leadeth me.

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hand in mine,
Nor ever murmur or repine—
Content with every lot I see,
Since 't is my God that leadeth me.

4 And when my task on earth is done,
When by thy grace the victory 's won,
E'en death's cold wave I will not flee,
Since God through Jordan leadeth me.

211 Beulah Land.

1 I've reached the land of corn and wine,
And all its riches freely mine;
Here shines undimmed one blissful day,
For all my night hath passed away.

CHO.—*O Beulah land! sweet Beulah land!
As on thy highest mount I stand,
I look away across the sea, [me,
Where mansions are prepared for
And view the shining glory shore,
My heaven, my home, for evermore.*

2 My Saviour comes and walks with me,
And sweet communion here have we;
He gently leads me by his hand,
For this is heaven's horder land.

3 The zephyrs seem to float to me,
Sweet sounds of heaven's melody,
As angels with the white-robed throng
Join in the sweet redemption song.

212 Let the Savior In.

1 Behold a stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before,
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

CHO.—*O, let the dear Saviour come in,
He'll cleanse thy heart from sin!
O, keep him no more out at the door,
But let the dear Saviour come in.*

2 O, lovely attitude!—he stands
With melting heart and loaded hands;
O, matchless kindness!—and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes!

3 But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will—the very friend you need;
The friend of sinners—yes, 't is he,
With garments died on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine,—
That soul destroying monster, sin,—
And let the heavenly stranger in.

213 The Night Cometh.

1 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours:
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flowers;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for the daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fades,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

214 The Home of the Soul.

1 I will sing you a song of that beautiful land,
The far away home of the soul,
Where no storms ever beat on the glittering strand,
While the years of eternity roll.

2 That unchangeable home is for you and for me,
Where Jesus of Nazareth stands;
The King of all kingdoms forever is he,
And he holdeth our crowns in his hands.

3 O how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain!
With songs on our lips, and with harps
in our hands,
To meet one another again.

215 Just as I Am.

1 Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God! I come, I come!

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God! I come, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within and fears without,
O Lamb of God! I come, I come!

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God! I come, I come!

5 Just as I am; thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God! I come, I come!

Morning Stars.

216 All for Thee.

1 Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to thee;
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of thy love.

CHO.—*Wash me in the Saviour's precious blood,
Cleanse me in its purifying flood;
Lord, I give to thee,
My life and all to be
Thine henceforth, eternally.*

2 Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful to thee;
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always only for my King.

3 Take my will, and make it thine,
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart, it is thy own,
It shall be thy royal throne

4 Take my love, my Lord; I pour
At thy feet its treasure-store;
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for thee.

217 The Solid Rock.

1 My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness:
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name

CHO.—*On Christ, the Solid Rock, I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand.*

2 When darkness veils his lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace:
In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

3 His oath, his covenant, his blood,
Support me in the whelming flood;
When all around my soul gives way
Hethen is all my hope and stay.

4 When he shall come with trumpet sound,
O, may I then in him be found;
Drest in his righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

218 I Love to Tell the Story.

1 I love to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
Because I know 't is true;
It satisfies my longings
As nothing else can do.

CHO.—*I love to tell the story,
'Twill be my theme in glory.
To tell the old, old story
Of Jesus and his love.*

2 I love to tell the story:
More wonderful it seems
Than all the golden fancies
Of all our golden dreams.
I love to tell the story,
It did so much for me;
And that is just the reason
I tell it now to thee

3 I love to tell the story,
For those who knew it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'T will be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.

219 More Love to Thee.

1 More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make
On hended knee:
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to thee;
More love to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,
Give what is best;
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O, Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

3 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be:
More love, O Christ to thee,
More love to thee!
MRS. ELIZABETH P. PRENTISS.

220 Rescue the Perishing.

1 Rescue the perishing,
Care for the dying,
Snatch them in pity from sin and the grave;
Weep o'er the erring one,
Lift up the fallen,
Tell them of Jesus, the mighty to save.

CHO.—*Rescue the perishing,
Care for the dying;
Jesus is merciful,
Jesus will save.*

2 Though they are slighting him,
Still he is waiting,
Waiting the penitent child to receive.
Plead with them earnestly,
Plead with them gently;
He will forgive if they only believe.

3 Down in the human heart,
Crushed by the tempter,
Feelings lie hurled that grace can restore;
Touched by a loving heart,
Wakened by kindness,
Chords that were broken will vibrate
once more.

4 Rescue the perishing,
Duty demands it;
Strength for thy labor the Lord will provide;
Back to the narrow way
Patiently win them,
Tell the poor wanderer a Savior has died.
